MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

On Security Group of Companies

On Security pride itself for being a total Security solution provider for both Sri Lankan and overseas customers. Within a relatively short period of time the company experienced a rapid growth from a small company in undertaking and completing major nation and even overseas security projects.

The journey has been challenging and at the same time a great learning experience for all of us. Every new project forced us to learn new skills and adopt new technologies to deliver an exceptional quality final creation. Today On Security has grown and spread its wings even in the international arena posing both a challenge and a benchmark to the long standing giants in the security industry.

We realized there are several factors for this remarkable success- the underlying philosophy, the people and the commitment to continuous improvement. We believe the customers are the most important people to consider and we focus on the lifetime value of the customers and the values we add to their lives in the long run. Further, the management and leadership have enabled the company to envision the challenges and prepare in advance to successfully face and overcome those challenges.

Finally, I would like to express my gratitude to the dedicated and motivated staff of the On security. They are the chief asset and the backbone of the company to confidently undertake and delivering exceptional quality security services. The organization implements schemes to guarantee the occupational health and safety of our staff and offer incentives and rewards for personal and professional development.

We envision travelling a long journey in the industry while integrating the modern technologies and understanding and exceeding the expectations of the customer with trendsetting security solutions.

When it comes to Show and Event Protection, here at MC Security Protection Ltd, we take great pride in offering only the best. With experienced Protection Agents trained in handling all your event Protection needs, you can trust the professionals in ensuring that your event runs smoothly and securely. From preparing the initial Protection details to wrapping it all up, our Protection Agents will be there from beginning to end ensuring your event stays secure throughout. Find out more about the range of events we can cater for: Our Protection staff offer a huge skill set involved with Event Protection, including:

- Static and mobile Protection
- Front House Protection
- Crowd Management services
- Emergency planning and evacuation procedures
- Liaising with police and event organizers
- CCTV surveillance
- Drone Monitoring and Reporting

Responsibilities such as arranging Protection and emergency contingency plans and being first on the scene to provide first aid assistance make up only a fraction of the duties of our Protection Agents. Organizing the event entails that a number of issues are safely under control, including the number of people involved, the venue's evacuation procedures, and custom designing your Protection Agents relevant to your event.

As well as providing static Protection, we also offer CCTV and mobile Protection Patrol solutions. Monitoring for any suspicious activity, our CCTV systems and Drones will capture any potential dangers whilst our mobile Protection Agents patrol the site to make sure your property and guests are safe from harm. At GPC we understand that no two events are the same, which is why our protection packages can be tailor-made to meet your requirements.

STORE DETECTIVES

Offering the ultimate protection when it comes to your retail business, Discreet Store Detectives can take your Protection to the next level and provide your stock and staff with the protection it needs. Reducing your chances of becoming victim to theft, store detectives can seamlessly integrate themselves onto your store floor and be the much needed eyes and ears of your business. Understanding that you simply don't have the time to monitor every single customer, here at MC Security Protection we can implement the following services to allow you to continue with business as usual:

- Reduce stock theft
- Detect and arrest shoplifters
- Carry out end of day staff searches
- Provide undercover detectives to blend in with your floor
- Monitor your staff
- Ensure appropriate till usage
- Carry out statements, interviews and investigations

Moving around your floor without raising suspicion our unbeatable store detectives will blend in as just another customer whilst keeping a close eye on any suspects. Trained to deal with aggression and conflicting behavior, should the time come to make an arrest our personnel will do so in an efficient, subtle manner without drawing any unnecessary attention to your store. Liaising with the police our MC Security Protection detectives are even trained to take statements, carry out interviews and investigate any situations we come into contact with. As unique individuals that have undergone extensive training our retail store detectives provide that extra level of Protection on top of your existing Agents. Subject to vigorous assessments and SIA qualifications you can be sure that every single store detective we assign to a job is equipped to handle a multitude of scenarios in the best possible manner. Often working in conjunction with store managers and other Protection Agents our store detective's aim is to detect and arrest by roaming your floor undercover. By doing so our store detectives can ensure no internal misdemeanor is occurring and that no members of the public are trying to make a getaway with your property. So if you're looking to go above and beyond a Protection guard and aren't looking to provide that deterrent factor but want undercover personnel to catch any potential thieves red handed then hire store detectives with MC Security Protection today.

CLOSE PROTECTION AGENTS

Corporate, merchant bankers, diplomats, international visitors, dignitaries, or perhaps a high profile court appearance or press intrusion, we have the knowledge and resources to protect nationally, or internationally.

Whilst we live under the constant threat of global terror, close protection is a necessity for many, rather than a luxury or a fashion accessory. The modern close protection officer has to be extremely well trained, always prepared and well disciplined.

MC Security Protection Consultants Close Protection services deploy professionally trained male and female officers to provide either regular residential protection, or specific short or long term protection assignments. We insist on gathering intelligence and completing a full threat analysis & risk assessment on behalf of our clients before engaging our services. It is essential that we are fully briefed on the operational requirements to enable our protection teams to conduct the security duties to our highest ability

Our officers are trained and continuously refreshed in numerous areas including evasive driving & anti ambush skills, personal safety training and unarmed combat and search duties, this is after completing the close protection higher level intense training course to meet with the current global requirements.

The ever growing threat of kidnap and random demands emphasise the need to have the correct level of protection for our clients, their families and their business too. We provide highly sophisticated protection programmes including GPRS tracking devices and surveillance support to reduce the risks. Our protection teams are very discreet in their duties maintaining our covert assignments. Our counter surveillance measures are also key to early intervention.

EXECUTIVE TRAVEL

Chauffeur services available with or without a Close Protection officer, our executive transport provides our valued clients with the luxury, of a stress free service. We have a wonderful choice of luxurious cars fit for your purpose.

Our planning and client evaluation begins on first contact. We gather comprehensive information to enable MC Security Protection to gain a full overview of the level of security required.

Please contact us to make an appointment to discuss your requirement all enquiries are treated in the strictest of confidence.
